BADGIE VS TAKA SPORTS: COMPARISON STUDY

TAKA Sports and Badgie, axis by axis: what each one publishes, with the source of each data point, and who each tool is for.

Updated on 1 October 2026

METHODOLOGY

Functional comparison based on each company's public information as of 1 October 2026 and on Badgie features in production. "Not published" means the company does not describe it on its pages, not that it does not exist. If something has changed, write to us at hello@badgie.com and we will correct it.

30-SECOND SUMMARY

TAKA turns a club's match video into highlights and per-player statistics for US youth football. Badgie is the academy management platform: students, payments, communication, reports, badges and training video. They overlap only in video and statistics. TAKA needs the club's video or its camera; Badgie does not generate automatic highlights.
